

Leland Greek currently serves as Fire Chief for Sumter County Fire & EMS, Florida. He started his Fire Service career in 1981 in Brevard County Florida where he progressed through the ranks and served several years as charter member of the department's Hazardous Materials team. He has also served the City of Cape Canaveral, the City of Seminole, and now Sumter County fire departments.

Fire Service Experience

Firefighter/EMT-Paramedic 1981 - 1985

Lieutenant 1985 - 1993

Captain Training 1993 - 1998

Division Chief Training/EMS 1998 - 2008

Deputy Chief Operations 2008 - 2011

Fire Chief 2011 - Present

Areas of Responsibility/Interest

Strategic Planning

Budgetary Planning/Management

Organizational Leadership and Growth

Accreditation Process/ Peer Assessment

Public Policy

Training & Safety

Education/Achievements

Associates Degree in Fire Science

Bachelor's Degree in Organizational Leadership

Master's Degree in Executive Fire Service Leadership

Executive Fire Officer Graduate

Chief Fire Officer Designee

Certified Public Manager

Member Institute of Fire Engineers

CPSE Peer Assessor